POLICE REMEMBRANCE DAY 2010
AND ROLL OF HONOUR 1886-2010

THE ROYAL NEW ZEALAND POLICE COLLEGE
29 SEPTEMBER 2010
The story behind the Police Remembrance Day Pin

The Police Remembrance Day Pin was developed by New Zealand Police and the Police Association, who have been working together to raise the profile of Police Remembrance Day in the hearts and minds of police staff and the general public nationwide.

Now lost to us, the Huia bird's tail plumage is something rare and special. To wear it is considered by Māori to be a great honour. By incorporating the Police chevron into the Huia tail feather, the design of the pin symbolises the honouring of someone special, now lost to the Police.

Police staff throughout New Zealand take part in Police Remembrance Day by wearing the pin to honour the memory of those police officers slain while carrying out their police duties.

Any donations towards the pin will go to the Police Families Charitable Trust for the families of New Zealand police officers who have been slain while carrying out their police duties.

Huia e! Huia tangata kotahi. He tōtara kua hinga.
The feather of the huia, for someone special. One dearly departed.

Police colours explained
Padre David R Dell
RNZPC Chaplain

Good morning. The colour party is carrying the Police flag. The Police flag is accorded the same recognition that the colours are accorded in the armed forces. These recognise those who have laid down their lives in the course of their duties.

The National Anthem

E Ihowa Atua, ō ngā iwi matou ra, āta whakarongonā me aroha noa.
Kia hua ko te pai; kia tau tō ātawhai;
manaakitia mai, Aotearoa.

God of nations, at thy feet, in the bonds of love we meet;
hear our voices we entreat, God defend our free land!
Guard Pacific’s triple star from the shafts of strife and war,
make her praises heard afar; God defend New Zealand!

Commissioner: New Zealand Police
A Tribute

To the serving and retired police staff who have died during the past year
Padre David R Dell

As we share together in today’s Police Remembrance Day Service, we do so as part of the wider community of police throughout New Zealand, Australia and the South Pacific, as we remember before God those who have died during the past 12 months.

We share with our colleagues and friends in Australia and the South Pacific a sense of common loss. While some died in the line of duty, others were serving and retired police staff.

Today, we are very privileged to have here with us the families of some of those who have died – and we offer a special welcome to you. Other family members and friends who cannot be with us today, we remember in prayer.

May this Police Remembrance Day Service, and the spirit of love, faith and compassion that binds us together, bring comfort and hope to everyone.

May our loneliness be eased, our hurt healed and our hope rekindled, as we remember that death is not the end but rather the completion of our life here on earth.

May the God of peace and hope guide each breath and every step as we continue our journey of life and faith.
Praise, my soul, the king of heaven! to his feet thy tribute bring;
ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven, who like me his praise should sing?
Alleluia, alleluia! praise the everlasting king!

Praise him for his grace and favour to our fathers in distress;
praise him still the same for ever, slow to chide and swift to bless:
Alleluia, alleluia! glorious in his faithfulness!

Father-like he tends and spares us; well our feeble frame he knows;
in his hands he gently bears us, rescues us from all our foes;
Alleluia, alleluia! widely as his mercy flows!

Angels, help us to adore him; ye behold him face to face;
sun and moon, bow down before him, all that is in time and space:
Alleluia, alleluia! praise with us the God of grace!

Hymn

I Vow To Thee, My Country

Words by Sir Cecil Spring-Rice. Music by Gustav Holst

I vow to thee, my country, all earthly things above;
entire and whole and perfect, the service of my love.
The love that asks no question, the love that stands the test;
that lays upon the altar the dearest and the best.
The love that never falters, the love that pays the price;
the love that makes undaunted the final sacrifice.

And there’s another country, I’ve heard of long ago;
most dear to them that love her, most great to them that know.
We may not count her armies, we may not see her King;
her fortress is a faithful heart, her pride is suffering.
And soul by soul and silently her shining bounds increase;
and her ways are ways of gentleness and all her paths are peace.
Time of Remembrance
Padre David R Dell

We meet near the memorial that reminds us of the New Zealand police officers, as well as traffic officers from past eras, whose lives were taken while carrying out their duties. We salute them today and we remember their loved ones who are still living.

Silence.

I call on Senior Inspector Elisha Tanele to read the names of those in Australia and from the Islands of the South Pacific who were slain* or who died while performing their duty.

Senior Inspector Elisha Tanele
The Royal Papua New Guinea Constabulary
On secondment to the Pacific Islands Chiefs of Police Secretariat as a Project Officer

Let us remember our colleagues who were members of the Police in Australia, Papua New Guinea, Kiribati and American Samoa who were slain* or who died while on duty in the past year.

New South Wales
*Detective Constable William Arthur George Crews, VA

Papua New Guinea
Superintendent Michael Chare
Senior Constable Eli Iki
Senior Constable Gerea Imani
Sergeant Robert Karo
Senior Constable Henry Ketan
Constable Minanda
*Probationary Constable Selly Mol
Constable Akus Musser
Senior Constable Steven Pakaya

Kiribati
*Senior Constable Ioane Namai

American Samoa
*Detective Lieutenant Lusila Brown
I call on Inspector Fiona Prestidge to read the names of the serving staff of the New Zealand Police who died while in service.

Inspector Fiona Prestidge
Strategic Advisor: ICTSC

Let us now remember the twelve staff members of the New Zealand Police who died in the past year while in service.

We remember ... (see pages 7-8)

---

Padre David R Dell
We ask Deputy Commissioner Viv Rickard and Retired Chief Inspector Sherwood Young to read the names of those retired and other former staff notified to us, who have died during the past year.

Deputy Commissioner Viv Rickard
Deputy Commissioner: Resource Management

Retired Chief Inspector Sherwood Young MBE
President of the Wellington Retired Police Club

We remember ... (see pages 9-15)
I dreamed a dream in time gone by, when hope was high and life worth living;
I dreamed that love would never die, I prayed that God would be forgiving.

Then I was young and unafraid, and dreams were made and used and wasted;
there was no ransom to be paid, no song unsung, no wine untasted.
   But the tigers come at night, with their voices soft as thunder;
   as they tear your hope apart, as they turn your dreams to shame.

And still I dream you’d come to me, that we would live the years together;
but there are dreams that cannot be, and there are storms we cannot weather.

I had a dream my life would be, so different from the life I’m living;
so different now from what it seemed, has my life killed the dream I dreamed?
   As I cry out in the night, though my life’s been turned asunder;
   a voice is stirring me to wonder, can I find new hope again?

I dream a little dream again, a spark of hope that life’s worth living;
I glimpse a rainbow through this pain;
maybe, tomorrow, the sun will shine again!
Prayer

Rev Heather Keith
Chaplain: Kilbirnie, Johnsonville, Wellington Airport and Road Policing
Link Chaplain: Wellington District

Gracious God, in the midst of life we face the reality of death: open our hearts as we remember those who have gone before us.

Remind us of your promise to be with us always, and make us ever grateful for those we remember today, as colleagues from the past and present.

We thank you for the men and women who have given their all to maintain law and order in New Zealand, Australia and the region of the South Pacific, as they have helped keep our communities safe.

May God rest their souls.

In the name of Jesus Christ we pray.

Amen.
Laying of the Wreath
Padre David R Dell

In a moment, the Official Party will move outside. Commissioner Howard Broad and Deputy Commissioner Rob Pope will lay wreaths at the Memorial Wall. Commissioner Howard Broad’s wreath is in memory of the officers named on the Memorial Wall. Deputy Commissioner Rob Pope’s wreath is in memory of the serving and former staff members who have died in the last 12 months.

We ask that everyone else remains in the gym and views the ceremony on the screen.

The Official Party will be led by a member of the Wellington Police Dog Section in memory of Police Dog Gage who was killed in July.

Would you all please stand and remain standing if possible.

After the Official Party has moved outside, Commissioner Howard Broad lays a wreath at the foot of the Memorial Wall in memory of the officers named on the wall.

Then Deputy Commissioner Rob Pope lays a wreath at the foot of the Memorial Wall in memory of the serving and former staff members who have died in the last 12 months.

A member of the New Zealand Police Pipe Band will then play “The Day Thou Gavest, Lord, Is Ended.”

We stand in silence.

The Official Party moves back inside.

Please be seated.

Hymn
How Great Thou Art / Whakaaria Mai
Words and music by Stuart Hine © 1941, © Renewed 1981 Stuart Hine, Mana Music Inc

O Lord my God! When I in awesome wonder consider all the works thy hand has made.
I see the stars, I hear the mighty thunder,
thy power throughout the universe displayed.

Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee.
How great thou art! How great thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee.
How great thou art! How great thou art!

When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation and take me home, what joy shall fill my heart!
Then I shall bow in humble adoration and there proclaim, my God, how great thou art!

Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee.
How great thou art! How great thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee.
How great thou art! How great thou art!

Whakaaria mai, tō rīpeka ki au;
tiaho mai, ra roto i te pō.
Hei konei au, titiro atu ai;
orā mate, hei au koe noho ai.

Whakaaria mai, tō rīpeka ki au;
tiaho mai, ra roto i te pō.
Hei konei au, titiro atu ai;
orā mate, hei au koe noho ai.
Ora mate, hei au koe noho ai. Āmine

Closing Song
Po Atarau/Now Is The Hour
The Royal New Zealand Police College Kapa Haka Group
David Dell’s Take Note Singers

Po atarau, e moea iho nei,
e haere anā, koe ki pāmamao.
Haere rā, ka hoki mai ano,
ki i te tau, e tangi atu nei.

Now is the hour when we must say goodbye;
soon you’ll be sailing far across the sea.
While you’re away, oh, please remember me;
when you return, you’ll find me waiting here.
When you return, you’ll find me waiting here.

Police flag is marched off

Official Party departs
Please remain standing as the Official Party departs. Following their departure, you are welcome to move outside.

End of service.
Songs as people leave

Hallelujah
*David Dell’s Take Note Singers
Melody and Chorus by Leonard Cohen. Verses by David R Dell*

Sometimes this life lifts you up – sets you high on a mountain top and everywhere you look is beautiful.
Sometimes the joy makes you whole as it overflows your very soul and from your lips a breath sings hallelujah!

   Hallelujah, hallelujah, hallelujah, hallelujah!

Sometimes this life brings you down – you’re left lying on the ground and nothing seems to matter anymore.
Sometimes your crying goes unknown, it leaves you feeling so alone that the last thing on your mind is hallelujah!

Sometimes you’re lost in the past rememb’ring things that didn’t last and longing for the days that had to end.
Sometimes you wish you could turn back time and live again in the state of mind where ev’rything resolved in hallelujah!

Wintertime can seem so long – through rain and snow your hope is gone – yet springtime brings the frozen ground to life.
Life is hollow without pain – yet hope, it covers up the stains, and from your lips brings out a hallelujah!

No-one said that life should be an easy stroll on a sandy beach – everyone knows happiness and loss.
Where there is loss, there can be gain, so stand up on your feet again and hear your life within sing hallelujah!
