The story behind the Police Remembrance Day Pin

The Police Remembrance Day Pin was developed by New Zealand Police and the Police Association, who have been working together to raise the profile of Police Remembrance Day in the hearts and minds of police staff and the general public nationwide.

Now lost to us, the Huia bird's tail plumage is something rare and special. To wear it is considered by Māori to be a great honour. By incorporating the Police chevron into the Huia tail feather, the design of the pin symbolises the honouring of someone special, now lost to the Police.

Police staff throughout New Zealand take part in Police Remembrance Day by wearing the pin to honour the memory of those police officers slain while carrying out their police duties.

Any donations towards the pin will go to the Police Families Charitable Trust for the families of New Zealand police officers who have been slain while carrying out their police duties.

Huia e! Huia tangata kotahi. He tōtara kua hinga.
The feather of the huia, for someone special. One dearly departed.

New Zealand Police Officers and Traffic Officers Slain On Duty

Front cover artwork:
Painting by F H Ching, from the cover of “The Huia Song” by Mrs Olive Mona Shakespeare, published in Petone in 1932.
The artwork is supplied by Musical Heritage New Zealand.
The New Zealand Police Roll of Honour bears the names of 29 Police and Traffic Officers who have been slain on duty over the past 127 years. These officers’ names are at the centre of Remembrance Day as we remember and acknowledge their ultimate sacrifice.

Ko te aroha ano he wai,
Love is an inspiration

e pupu ake ana,
that wells up

he awa e mapuna mai ana,
like a river that springs

i roto i te whatumanawa. [ano]
from the tears of the heart. [repeat]

Ko tona matapuna he hohonu,
Its roots are deep

a ina ia ka rere ano. [ano]
and when it flows ... [repeat]

He tai timu, he tai pari –
it becomes an ebbing, flowing tide –

he tai ope –
a collective, synthesising tide –

he tai roa.
an endless tide.

He tai nui – he tai nui – he tai nui.
Indeed a great tide.
Police colours explained

Padre David R Dell
National Co-ordinating Chaplain to New Zealand Police
Chaplain: Police National Headquarters and The Royal New Zealand Police College

Good morning. The colour party is carrying the Police flag. The Police flag is accorded the same recognition that the colours are accorded in the armed forces. These recognise those who have laid down their lives in the course of their duties.

Police flag is marched on

The National Anthem

E Ihowa Atua, ō ngā iwi matou ra, āta whakarongonā me aroha noa.
Kia hua ko te pai; kia tau tō ātawhai;
manaakitia mai, Aotearoa.

God of nations, at thy feet, in the bonds of love we meet;
hear our voices we entreat, God defend our free land!
Guard Pacific’s triple star from the shafts of strife and war,
make her praises heard afar; God defend New Zealand!

A Tribute
To the serving and retired police staff who have died during the past year
Padre David R Dell

As we share together in today’s Police Remembrance Day Service, we do so as part of the wider community of police throughout New Zealand, Australia and the South Pacific, as we remember before God those who have died during the past 12 months.

We share with our colleagues and friends in Australia and the South Pacific a sense of common loss. While some died in the line of duty, others were serving and retired police staff.

Today, we are very privileged to have with us the families of some of those who have died – and we offer a special welcome to you. Other family members and friends who cannot be with us today, we remember in prayer.

May this Police Remembrance Day Service, and the spirit of love, faith and compassion that binds us together, bring comfort and hope to everyone.

May our loneliness be eased, our hurt healed and our hope rekindled, as we remember that death is not the end but rather the completion of our life here on earth.

May the God of peace and hope guide each breath and every step as we continue our journey of life and faith.

Amazing Grace
Words by John Newton (1725-1807)

Amazing grace! how sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me;
I once was lost, but now I’m found, was blind, but now I see.

‘Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, and grace my fears relieved;
how precious did that grace appear, the hour I first believed.

Through many dangers, trials and snares I have already come;
‘tis grace that brought me safe thus far, and grace will lead me home.

When we’ve been there ten thousand years, bright shining as the sun, we’ve no less days to sing God’s praise than when we first begun.

Amazing grace! how sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me;
I once was lost, but now I’m found, was blind, but now I see.

I Vow To Thee, My Country

Words by Sir Cecil Spring-Rice. Music by Gustav Holst

I vow to thee, my country, all earthly things above;
entire and whole and perfect, the service of my love.
The love that asks no question, the love that stands the test;
that lays upon the altar the dearest and the best.
The love that never falters, the love that pays the price;
the love that makes undaunted the final sacrifice.

And there’s another country, I’ve heard of long ago;
most dear to them that love her, most great to them that know.
We may not count her armies, we may not see her King;
her fortress is a faithful heart, her pride is suffering.
And soul by soul and silently her shining bounds increase;
and her ways are ways of gentleness and all her paths are peace.
Time of Remembrance
Padre David R Dell

We meet near the memorial that reminds us of the New Zealand police officers, as well as traffic officers from past eras, whose lives were taken while carrying out their duties. We salute them today and we remember their loved ones who are still living.

Silence.

I call on Deputy Commissioner Viv Rickard to read the names of those in the Australian and South Pacific region who were slain or who died while performing their duty.

E To Matou Matua I Te Rangi
The Royal New Zealand Police College Kapa Haka Group
Words Traditional 1830s. Music possibly by Morvin Simon

E ū mātou Matua i te rangi, kia tapu ōu Ingoa,
kia tae mai ōu rangatiratanga.

Kia meatia tāu e pai ai
ki runga ki te whenua,
kia rite anō ki ū te rangi.

Homai ki a mātou āianei
he taro mā mātou mo tēnei rā.

Murua o mātou hara,
me mātou hoki e muru nei
i ō te hunga e hara ana ki a mātou.

Aua hoki mātou e kawea kia whaka-waia;
engari whaka-orangia mātou, i te kino.

Nōu hoki te rangatiratanga,
te kaha, me te korōria,
ake, āke, āke. Āmine.
Prayer

Padre David R Dell

Gracious God, in the midst of life we face the reality of death: open our hearts as we remember those who have gone before us.

Remind us of your promise to be with us always, and make us ever grateful for those we remember today, as colleagues from the past and present.

We thank you for the men and women who have given their all to maintain law and order in New Zealand, Australia and the South Pacific region, as they have helped keep our communities safe.

May God rest their souls.

In the name of Jesus Christ we pray.

Amen.
Laying of the Wreath
Padre David R Dell

In a moment, the Official Party will move outside. Commissioner Peter Marshall, Minister of Police Hon Anne Tolley, Deputy Commissioner Viv Rickard and Deputy Commissioner Mike Bush will lay wreaths at the Memorial Wall.

Commissioner Peter Marshall’s wreath is in memory of the officers named on the Memorial Wall.

The Minister of Police Hon Anne Tolley’s wreath is on behalf of the Government of New Zealand and the people of New Zealand.

Deputy Commissioner Viv Rickard’s wreath is in memory of the serving staff members who have died in the last 12 months.

Deputy Commissioner Mike Bush’s wreath is in memory of the former staff members who have died in the last 12 months and for the police officers from Australia and Papua New Guinea who were slain on duty in the last year.

We ask that everyone else remains in the gym and views the ceremony on the screen.

Would you all please stand and remain standing if possible.

After the Official Party has moved outside, the wreath laying will proceed in the following order: Commissioner Peter Marshall, Hon Anne Tolley, Deputy Commissioner Viv Rickard and Deputy Commissioner Mike Bush.

A member of the New Zealand Police Pipe Band will then play “The Day Thou Gavest, Lord, Is Ended”.

We stand in silence.

The Official Party moves back inside.

Please be seated.

How Great Thou Art / Whakaaria Mai

Words and music by Stuart Hine © 1941, © Renewed 1981 Stuart Hine, Mana Music Inc

O Lord my God! When I in awesome wonder consider all the works thy hand has made.
I see the stars, I hear the mighty thunder,
thy power throughout the universe displayed.

Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee.
How great thou art! How great thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee.
How great thou art! How great thou art!

When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation and take me home, what joy shall fill my heart!
Then I shall bow in humble adoration and there proclaim, my God, how great thou art!

Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee.
How great thou art! How great thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee.
How great thou art! How great thou art!

Whakaaria mai, tō rīpeka ki au;
Tiaho mai, ra roto i te pō.
Hei konei au, titiro atu ai;
Ora mate, hei au koe noho ai.

Whakaaria mai, tō rīpeka ki au;
Tiaho mai, ra roto i te pō.
Hei konei au, titiro atu ai;
Ora mate, hei au koe noho ai.
Ora mate, hei au koe noho ai. Āmine.
