Police flag explained
Deputy Commissioner Mike Clement

Shortly the Police Flag will be paraded into the gymnasium by the colour party. The Police flag is accorded the same recognition that the colours are accorded in the armed forces. These recognise those who have laid down their lives in the course of their duties.

Please stand.

Police flag is marched on.
The National Anthem
Words by Thomas Bracken (1841-1898)

E Ihova Atua, ō ngā iwi matou ra,
āta whakarongo me aroha noa.
Kia hua ko te pai; kia tau tō ātawhai;
manaakitia mai, Aotearoa.

God of nations, at thy feet, in the bonds of love we meet;
hear our voices we entreat, God defend our free land!
Guard Pacific's triple star from the shafts of strife and war,
make her praises heard afar; God defend New Zealand!

A Tribute
To the serving and retired police employees who have died during the past year.

Padre David Dell
As we share together in today’s Police Remembrance Day Service, we do so as part of the wider community of police throughout New Zealand, Australia and the South Pacific, as we remember before God, the Police and Traffic Officers who have been slain on duty over the past 131 years, the staff who died as a result of their duties over the past 131 years, and the serving and former Police staff who have died during the past 12 months.

We share with our colleagues and friends in Australia and the South Pacific a sense of common loss of those serving and retired police employees who have died.

Today, we are very privileged to have with us the families of some of those who have died – and we offer a special welcome to you. Other family members and friends who cannot be with us today, we remember in prayer.

May this Police Remembrance Day Service, and the spirit of love, faith and compassion that binds us together, bring comfort and hope to everyone.

May our loneliness be eased, our hurt healed and our hope rekindled, as we remember that death is not the end but rather the completion of our life here on earth.

May the God of peace and hope guide each breath and every step as we continue our journey of life and faith.

Hymn
Praise, My Soul, The King Of Heaven!

Words by Henry Francis Lyte (1793-1847)

Praise, my soul, the king of heaven! to his feet your tribute bring:
ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven, who like me his praise should sing?
Alleluia, alleluia! praise the everlasting king!

Praise him for his grace and favour to our fathers in distress;
praise him still the same as ever, slow to blame and swift to bless:
Alleluia, alleluia! glorious in his faithfulness!

Father-like, he tends and spares us; all our hopes and fears he knows,
in his hands he gently bears us, rescues us from all our foes,
Alleluia, alleluia! widely as his mercy flows.

Angels, help us to adore him; you behold him face to face;
sun and moon, bow down before him, all that is, in time and space:
Alleluia, alleluia! praise with us the God of grace!

Reflective Music – The Lord’s Prayer

E To Matou Matua I Te Rangi
The Royal New Zealand Police College Kapa Haka Group
Words Traditional 1830s. Music possibly by Morvin Simon.

E tō mātou Matua i te rangi,
kia tapu tōu Ingoa,
kia tae mai tōu rangatiratanga.

Kia meatia tāu e pai ai
ki runga ki te whenua,
kia rite anō ki tō te rangi.

Homai ki a mātou āianei
he taro mā mātou mo tēnei rā.

Murua o mātou hara,
me mātou hoki e muru nei
i ō te hunga e hara ana ki a mātou.

Aua hoki mātou e kawea kia whaka-waia;
engari whaka-orangia mātou, i te kino.

Nōu hoki te rangatiratanga,
te kaha, me te korōria,
āke, āke, āke. Āmine.

Prayer

Padre David Dell

Gracious God, in the midst of life we face the reality of death: open our hearts as we remember those who have gone before us.

Remind us of your promise to be with us always, and make us ever grateful for those we remember today, as colleagues from the past and present.

We thank you for the men and women who have given their all to maintain law and order in New Zealand, Australia and the South Pacific region, as they have helped keep our communities safe.

May God rest their souls.

In the name of Jesus Christ we pray. Amen
Laying of the Wreath
Deputy Commissioner Mike Clement

In a moment, the Official Party will move outside where they will lay wreaths at the Memorial Wall.

The Commissioner of Police Mike Bush will lay a wreath in memory of New Zealand Police employees who were slain on duty or died as a result of their Police duties, and serving employees who died during the last 12 months.

The Deputy Commissioner of Police Audrey Sonerson will lay a wreath in memory of those Australian and South Pacific Police employees who were slain on duty or died as a result of their Police duties, and the former New Zealand Police employees who died during the last 12 months.

We ask that everyone else remains seated in the gymnasium and views the ceremony on the screen to your left.

A member of the New Zealand Police Pipe Band will then play the ‘Lament for Jef Ar Penven’.

We reflect in silence.

The Official Party moves back inside.

Hymn

How Great Thou Art / Whakaaria Mai
Words and music by Stuart Hine © 1941, © Renewed 1981 Stuart Hine, Mana Music Inc.

O Lord my God! When I in awesome wonder consider all the works thy hand has made.
I see the stars, I hear the mighty thunder,
thy power throughout the universe displayed.

Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee.
How great thou art! How great thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee.
How great thou art! How great thou art!

Whakaaria mai, tō rīpeka ki au;
tiaho mai, ra roto i te pō.
Hei konei au, titiro atu ai;
ora mate, hei au koe noho ai.

Whakaaria mai, tō rīpeka ki au;
tiaho mai, ra roto i te pō.
Hei konei au, titiro atu ai;
ora mate, hei au koe noho ai.
ora mate, hei au koe noho ai. Āmine.

Benediction
